All Village to Turn Out To Honor Mrs. Coffman

Fifty of Eighty Birthday Cakes To Be Baked By Village Women Already Pledged

Indications loomed today that the whole town plans to turn out in honor of Mrs. Nellie Coffman's birthday which will take the form of an old fashioned picnic on the mashie course of the Desert Inn, November 1.

Some of the merchants on Palm Canyon drive have indicated that they would close their establishments for one to two hours during the course of the picnic so that employes may have an opportunity of participating.

BIRTHDAY CAKES have been promised so far by 50 women, Mrs. Charles Mathews reported yesterday. That many had, up to that time, indicated their intention of coming with a birthday cake.

"Thirty more cakes are needed," said Mrs. Mathews, "to make a total of 80 cakes, one for each year of Mrs. Nellie Coffman's years."

WOMEN WHO WOULD like to bring a cake to the affair are asked to telephone 6821, Mrs. Mathew's home, and if there is no answer to call 2193, Deep Well Ranch and leave their names. And if there is no answer at the last telephone number persons are asked to call 6181, the Chamber of Commerce.

Big Time Lined Up for Village Kids on Friday

Village mamas and papas won't have to worry about junior or Jennie come Hallowe'en.

As a matter of fact, the kids will in all probability feel sorry for their parents because of the big Hallowe'en party planned for them by the Lions Club.

Planned for the girls on that date is a show at one of Earl Strebe's theaters with nice little sweet things to chew on while they watch the cinema.

And if the little Tomboys among the girls think this program is too tame for them, they can accompany the boys out to the football game at the high school where the party for the boys will be staged.

THE BOYS' PART of Hallowe'en, as planned by a Lions Club committee includes their presence at the football game between the Palm Springs High School and Elsinore, the last home game of the season.

A special rooting section has been set aside for them.

After the game the guests of the Lions will participate in games on the Field. Among them will be included tug-o'-war and a soccer game.

MOST IMPORTANT of all, there'll be refreshments served the children at approximately 11

Color Goes Masculine

Solomon, in All His Glory, Would Have Looked Like a Tramp at Men's Fashion Show

If the male of the human specie ever had a secret yearning to adorn his masculine frame in the gaudy colors of the female he will be enabled to find surcease from that painful inhibition in the new styles of sports, leisure or casual wear, as manufactured in Southern California this year.

Indicating this revolution in men's fashions and particularly the color of their habiliments, was the fashion show held on the old rodeo grounds, highlight of the three-day convention of the Los Angeles Men's and Boy's Wear Manufacturer's association, Saturday night.

MORE THAN two thousand buyers, manufacturers and allied trades people crowded into the specially built stadium to witness the parade of models wearing the latest creations for the male gender.

Noticeable were the numerous new leisure coat models sporting the belted back tossed into the limbo of forgotten men's fashions years and years ago. Added to this style were also four pockets on these coats which have not been seen on the forms of a he-man since World War 1.

FEMININE APPAREL also shared the spotlight but only as an inducement to the male buyer. Cleverly modeled by men and women were identical outfits that ranged from swimming suit styles to sportswear.

The dual numbers consisted of the same type of cloth, color and texture in slack suits, and that means it included the pants and coat as well for both the man and woman.

ANOTHER SURPRISE was the similarity in design of the man's and woman's swimming suits.

PARTICIPATING in the show was Police Officer Jim Maynard, who strolled across the stage with the air of a professional.

Wall Spalding was the center of a lively scene when a group of models all wearing western attire gathered around the local merchant at the end of their parade before the audience.

THE CONVENTION was not all work during the three days. Before and after each business session, social events were staged.

Starting gun of the meeting was the cocktail party held at the Palm Springs Tennis Club Friday evening, followed by a dance the same night on the tennis courts.

Saturday morning the annual breakfast ride to a spot on the desert took place and food ala western style was served to several hundreds of those brave enough to get up at the early hour of 8 a.m.

Campaign to Tidy Up City Progressing

Volunteers Rally to Cause; More Needed To Oust All Rubbish

Through the valiant efforts of an all-too-small band of volunteers in the 10-day City-Wide Cleanup which opened last Friday, eighty truckloads of debris had been hauled off to the city dump last night-mute evidence of the determination of Palm Springs' residents that their city shall be tidied up!

The furbishing of the Village, decreed as a "must" activity to put the community in clean condition before the advent of the thousands of winter residents, will continue throughout this week in the remaining five councilmanic districts. Yesterday (Monday) Robert Hargis as chairman of the fourth district directed a well-organized group in a cleanup of the northernmost section of the city as the first work in this week .

LAST FRIDAY a small group of volunteers, under the direction of Dist. Chairman Homer Jenkins, opened fire in the determined spic-and-span campaign with a scouring of district 3 from which nearly 15 truckloads of material were removed.

On Sunday a hard-working group, directed by Dist. Chairman Wally Waring, tackled the big chore of brightening up the Indian reservation area. At the end of a wearying day more than 50 truckloads of debris had been hauled off. Although residents of the area cooperated splendidly by putting their rubbish where it could be reached by the trucks, persons who had agreed to assist in loading the trucks were noticeably absent, according to reports given from Manpower Chairman Robert Bennett. Despite the lack of numbers, the volunteers put in a satisfactory day.

FROM THE BOYS CLUB came 18 youths to man the trucks. Twelve other residents from the reservation worked with Chairman Waring, Bennett and Hilton McCabe in the two-day task, Saturday and Sunday.

Special mention was given by those in charge to several of the workers who turned in a commendable civic job, chief among these being "Bunny" Erno, "Cap." Bassett and Joseph Fuller. Appreciation also was given by the chairman to donors of trucks for the reservation work, these including McLaughlin Electric

Entries in Dog Show Sunday To Set Record

Shattering all records for the event, entries for the 1947 Palm Springs Kennel Dog Show, to be staged next Sunday, November 2, at the Field Club, are nearing 700, according to a report from Jack Bradshaw, superintendent.

This entry total exceeds last year's mark by nearly 200, the 1946 list having broken all preceding records. The show is sponsored by the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion which benefits to the extent of several hundred dollars annually, the money going into its Wars Memorial building fund.

FROM THROUGHOUT the southwest and California will come the finest of dogdom for the local show. As in the past trophies are being offered by the Desert Inn, Hotel the Oasis, Ingleside Inn, Deepwell Guest Ranch, Smoketree Ranch, Palm Springs Drug and Import company and the Chamber of Commerce.

The show will open at approximately 9 a.m. and judging will be started in three or four rings. Climaxing judging of the day—the best-in-show event—generally falls about 7:30 p.m.

MEMBERS of the Owen Coffman post and the Auxiliary will be in charge of a food and drink booth on the Field Club grounds throughout the day.

There will be no advance sale of tickets this year but they will be on sale at the gate.

Noted Columnist Guest At Dinner at Stables

Walter Winchell, newspaper columnist and radio commentator was the honored guest at a dinner party last night at The Stables hosted by Charlie Morrison.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bering, Charlie Farrell at whose Racquet Club Winchell is resting, Milton Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hinkle, all of the local newspaper scribes who brazenly cornered most of Winchell's time, Ruby and Connie of the Dunes, the latter was applauded for two songs she rendered; Sonny Tufts, and many other villagers.

Morrison without a doubt will gain for himself in the village as he has in Los Angeles, the crown as the most gracious lavish and even spectacular host, and last night's affair it was said, was only a Morrison miniature with only 75 guests present.

Two Villagers Lose Lives in Auto Accident

Two Villagers went to their death in an automobile accident on the road to 29 Palms early Sunday morning when an automobile reportedly driven by Jerry Layne failed to negotiate a curve and crashed.

Layne was instantly killed as was Bob Urton, 266 South Indian avenue, who was a passenger in the car. Urton is the son of Frank St .Marie of the Village.

Milton Knapp, also a passenger in the wrecked car, was treated for shock and bruises in Palm Springs Community hospital.

The fatal accident is being investigated by the coroner of San Bernardino county, having occurred across the county line.

Masons Resume Noon Meeting

William G. Paul, president of the Los Angeles stock exchange and past potentate of Al Malaikah temple, Los Angeles, was the speaker this noon as the Palm Springs Masonic club renewed its monthly meetings at the Desert Inn.

The club meets the last Tuesday of each month.

New Educational Foundation for Youth From All World To Be Centered in Palm Springs

Sometimes the hapstance of personal tragedy can result in a way of life that transcends all that is ugly, bigoted and reaches across such false boundaries as religious and racial intolerance.

It was tragedy that drew Dr. Winifred Johnson, now Mrs. Raymond Cree and Dr. Elizabeth M. Bonbright into such inseparable companions with the result, that the Marsden Foundation for Gifted Youth, was first talked of and then created in January 1947 with headquarters here in Palm Springs for the greater part of the year and the remainder of the time in Santa Barbara.

THE TWO LEARNED women doctors had known each other long before Ellin Leslie Johnson, 16, suddenly passed away in 1943 while visiting Dr. Bonbright in Santa Barbara. Following the death of this beautiful girl, the two women, mother and friend became inseparable.

Out of this close relationship the idea of putting her broad education to some material use, Dr. Bonbright saw the creation of the Marsden Foundation for Gifted Youth take bud and begin to bloom in the receptive and equally as well, educated mind of the present Mrs. Cree and bereaved mother.

THE PLAN involves a miniature of the Rhodes Scholarship idea but instead of some gifted youth going to England for further education, the student will come to Palm Springs where he or she will remain throughout the winter months and the summer months in Santa Barbara.

Here, at the Raymond Cree ranch, five to six gifted youths each year, from a total of approximately 30, will enjoy from October to May the hospitality of the Home-Center.

ACTUALLY all of the student's time will not be spent here in Palm Springs once the scholarship pupil has been entered into some American university. In definition, the Home Center here in Palm Springs and the "Chapel" as it is called in Santa Barbara, will literally mean exactly as the name implies—a home center, a family headquarters or a domicile.

Time spent at the Home Center will be week-end, holidays and vacations. The foreign youth selected for scholarships will learn the language and habits of Americans to better give them a foothold in the American universities they will enter before leaving the home center.

STUDENTS from all nations are eligible for a scholarship from the Marsden Foundation for Gifted Youths. There is an inclination, and well founded, too, to learn toward youths of foreign

Famed Event To Be Held March 10 to 13

The 1948 edition of the famous Desert Circus will be unveiled on March 10 for a four-day showing it was decided by the executive board of the Desert Circus association, meeting yesterday at the chamber of commerce.

It was also decided to employ a business manager for the event.

Frank Bennett, president of the association presided at yesterday's meeting at which many details of the coming event were discussed.

Hard Ball

League Plans Topic On Thursday Night

All interested in the formation of both a local and county hardball league are urged to be at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods store at 7:30 Thursday night to talk over plans.

Games in both the local and county loop will be played Sunday afternoons on the Field Club diamond.

LIKE A GROWING CHILD the changes in Palm Springs are not so noticable to one who grows up with them. Those who have been absent a season or two are amazed with the development going on. Take, for example, some of the recent additions in the desert area: Wonder Palms Hotel annd Guest Ranch, newest and one of the most beautiful of all . . . Bullock's store, the largest in Palm Springs . . . the coming of Robinson's to the Village . . . Solomon's attractive delicatessen-restaurant with everything "from a sandwich to a king's dinner" . . . The Seeburg apartment, store and professional building on North Palm Canyon . . . Palm Desert, with its 1600 acres being developed into a planned community . . . to mention only a few. Many stores and apartment hotels have been modernized and a large number of big construction jobs are well under way. The whole desert area is humming with activity . . . Better take a look around, you have likely missed something!

THE 22nd CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT is ably represented in Washington by John Phillips. He is capable, straight-forward, clear-thinking and energetic. He is a member of the appropriations committee, an honor that speaks for itself. In this capacity. Mr. Phillips is in a position to know about federal finances. He believes that the budgets of most departments can be reduced by eliminating unnecessary expenditures, and thinks that this government should not send money abroad until we know what the people there can do for themselves . . . Our representative in Congress believes that water is Southern California's greatest problem and is concerned about it . . . From many sources, we learn that John Phillips is very well thought of in Washington. His column which appears frequently in The Desert Sun, under the heading "I Rise to Remark," is well worth reading. It gives readers an opportunity to get an insight into the problems that confront Congress and our own representative's opinion about them. It is recommended reading.

Villagers Turn In Souvenirs Of Plane Crash

With scores of pieces of the jet plane which crashed here two weeks ago already turned in at the local police station, Chief Gus Kettmann today urged that any others who have parts of the ill-fated plane and are keeping them as souvenirs, to bring them in, too.

Col. C. J. Crane of March Field has asked that all parts be turned in to help the army board of examiners determine the cause of the crash.

Lt. August Woeltz, pilot of the plane, bailed out and escaped injury.

countries particularly at this time. This, because of the havoc and chaos the recent war has caused among seats of learning and the upheaval of economic conditions as an aftermath of that war.

Dr. Cree and Dr. Bonbright do not stand alone in complete dominance of the foundation. On the staff are included University advisors and special advisors. The university advisors include Lewis M. Terman, chairman, Stanford university; Dr. James C. Bonbright, Columbia university; E. Wilson Lyon, Claremont colleges; Donald Scott, Harvard university; Frederick E. Terman, Stanford university and James J. Warning, University of Colorado.

SPECIAL ADVISORS are Raymond Cree, Palm Springs; Elmer Ericson, president, S. W. Childs Management Corporation, New York; and Raymond B. Haizlip, legal advisor.

When The Sun sought out Drs. Bonbright and Cree, seeking information regarding Marsden Foundation for Gifted Youth, the reporter found the two women reticent and retiring in speaking about themselves and how the idea for the creation of the foundation first evolved.

It was only through persistent questioning that the story was finally obtained.

BOTH WOMEN found that now retired from an active life, Dr. Bonbright at Columbia university and Dr. Cree, teaching at Stanford, could put their broad and gainful education to some good in teaching and guiding gifted youth along the road to a position where the world would gain from their knowlege.

Out of this thinking and restlessness with a non-productive existence, as they saw it, the outlines of the Marsden Foundation grew and took shape.

"Well,' stated Dr. Cree, "we thought it would be an active and creative life aiding in the moulding of these young gifted youths who in turn would impart some good to the world."

SHE POINTED to the serene, quiet, idyllic life she, Dr. Bonbright and Mr. Cree are living on the ranch just outside of the southern limits of Palm Springs. She implied that all of the environment was conductive to the well being and ability of a student to study.

At one end of the ranch, several buildings, formerly situated on the Torney general hospital grounds, were being converted into living and dining and study rooms for the five or at a maximum, six students who will occupy the quarters during their various periods in Palm Springs.

THE PLAN concretely includes scholarships for five and not more than six gifted youth each year for a period of five years. During this time approximately thirty students will be calling the Cree ranch at Palm Springs their home center. At the end of five years one year will be passed when no scholarships will be given and then recommence again the following year.

"In that fashion," said Dr. Cree, "the Foundation will continue and if anything happens to us, (meaning Dr. Bonbright or herself) the Stanford University will take over the funds of the foundation and carry on, except that there will not be a home-center here."

AT PRESENT, there are several students from nearby universities aiding in the work of getting the home-center here ready by the end of the year at least. Aiding his mother in this work is David Johnson.

Only one full scholarship has been awarded so far because it takes time to find candidates in the younger age group. He is Per Hofstad of Oslo, Norway, son of a professor and a student of the Oslo junior colleges.

Per will come to the home-cneter in late November ready for the junior year in Pomona college in February at the age of 18. He has already been entered for the Fall semester in February 1948. He will remain at the home-center until he is sufficiently adept in taking notes in English and sufficiently accustomed to American methods of college teaching. Per will study chemistry.

OTHER SCHOLARSHIPS have already been awarded also. There is Maren-Sofie Restvig, fromer student at the University of Oslo. She will spend from one to two years with the Marsden Foundation. She is a candidate for a doctor of philosophy in English literature at the University of California in Los Angeles.

Eric Jacobsen of the University of Copenhagen has a two year award and is taking a graduate course in comparative literature at Harvard university.

Marion Bookelie is a concert-pianist. She was highly acclaimed throughout Norway as a soloist with the Oslo Symphony Orchestra. She is attending Mills college under instruction of Egon Petri.

Another Norwegian student is Rolv Enge, a sophomore at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Fine Arts.

DURING THE COURSE of the interview, Raymond Cree, well known in Palm Springs as both a realtor and former educator in Riverside, attired in overalls was washing his automobile near by.

It is known that most of Cree's life was devoted to the profession of teaching. Re-elected three times to the office of superintendent of schools of Riverside county, he resigned in his fourth term to make his home on the desert in Palm Springs.

IN ANSWER to what part he was playing in the Marsden foundation and particularly at the home-center he replied:

"Me?" "Oh, I'm just called 'Papa' by the students around here," and he smiled gleefully, satisfied that again after many years in the real estate business, he would have a hand in the education of the young.

"I still plan to continue in the real estate business," he hurriedly added, "but with less time than heretofore."

THE NAME MARSDEN aroused considerable curiosity and it was found that the selection of the name epitomizes the theme and scheme in the creation of the foundation.

The story is that long ago living in Pennsylvania was a country doctor by the name of Marsden. Throughout his practice of medicine he had dedicated his life to humanity without any thought of worldly wealth.

Thus the foundation is commemorative of his life and is the basic character of the newly found institution.

"IT IS HOPED," said Dr. Cree, "that we will bring something beautiful and worthwhile to the community of Palm Springs."

Some of the students, she said, may enter the Palm Springs high school in an effort to gain some knowledge of scholastic life in this country.

"Teachers, whenever they can come out to the ranch, will be cordially welcomed," added Dr. Cree.

Rich dressy black calf and kid with russet kid underlays and fancy yet conservative stitching make this boot a true favorite with range hand and rodeo performer alike.

Still Searching

Icepick Assailant Makes His Getaway

Police this week were still searching for Anthony Callaway, Negro, with a warrant charging assault with a deadly weapon after he allegedly stabbed Eugene E. Kimbrough, 32, several times with an icepick in an argument over the affections of a colored woman on the reservation last Tuesday night.

Kimbrough, who landed in the Palm Springs Community hospital with a punctured lung as a result of the stabbing, was released from that institution Friday. He signed the complaint against Callaway.

County Population To Hit 170,000 Soon

Riverside county will harbor 170,000 people when the 1950 census is taken, the State Reconstruction and Reemployment commission estimated last week. That represents a 61 per cent gain over the 1940 count which was 105,000.

In the state ,as a whole, there'll be 10,665,000 people in 1950, it was estimated .

Bound Over

Lloyd Pierce To Face Superior Court Trial

Lloyd Pierce, 35, Negro gardener charged with burglary, was bound over to Riverside Superior Court, following preliminary hearing before Judge Eugene E. Therieau Friday.

Pierce is alleged to have entered two garages on premises where he was employed and to have taken radios and other valuables. His bail was set at $500.

Capt. Butcher Guest in Village

Luncheon guest of Dick Joy, co-owner of radio station KCMJ Friday was Captain Harry. Butcher, U.S.N.R. who was chief of staff for the Navy on General Ike Isenhower's staff and later became his biographer.

Captain Butcher is the owner of radio station KIST of Santa Barbara.

Jack Medica holds the mile swimming record of 20 minutes, 57 seconds, set in 1934 at Chicago.

Borrego Valley Allocated Public Works Project

Borrego Valley ,site of the multi-million-dollar Borrego Springs resort community, has been allocated $136,000 for construction, improvements, repairs and equipment to be put into the Anza Desert State Park.

Construction of the above projects will be done by the Department of Public Works under legislative authority contained in Chapter 484, Statutes of 1947, Item 238.

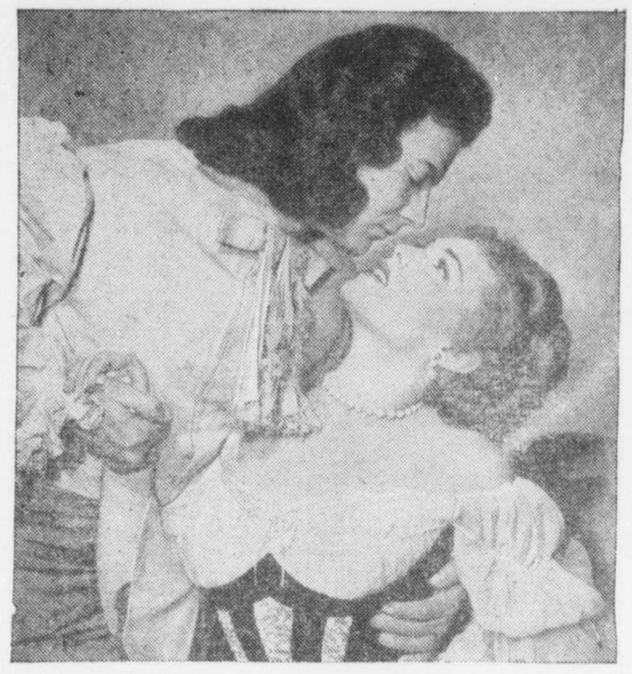
Orders for grading, landscaping and improvement of trails throughout the Anza Park area have already been issued; the balance of the proposed work will be accomplished as soon as practicable prior to June 30, 1948, end of the present fiscal year.

Deer Kill Light In Hunting Area

Only 35 deer were killed in the San Jacinto mountain district of the San Bernardino national forest during the month-long hunting season, which closed October 15, Assistant Supervisor C. S. Robinson reported.

Over 800 nimrods ranged the open areas of the district to take one of the lowest kills in many years.

Hunting over the entire forest was poor, with the total kill being only 365 deer. Approximately 10,050 hunters were checked in and out of the hunting grounds. Last year 14,300 hunters killed 890 bucks, establishing a record for the forest.



PLIGHTS HER LOVE—In this scene from the screen version of "Forever Amber" Cornel Wilde, as Bruce Carlton, and Linda Darnell, as Amber, declare their undying love, which is the motivating force in Kathleen Winsor's story. Her best-seller, now ready for showing throughout the country, has been produced on a lavish scale in Technicolor by Twentieth Century-Fox. More than 1,000 craftsmen worked on the film, which was two years in the making, and 100 supporting players and 4,000 extras appear in its 153 episodes. "Forever Amber" will have its premiere at the Plaza Wednsday, Octobr 29.

Star of "Forever Amber" Reveals Tremendous Task Filming Story

For all young girls who aspire to be actresses, Linda Darnell, whose title role in the lavish Techinicolor production of "Forever Amber" was the most strenuous in her seven years of movie making, has a bit of advice. Be strong in body, stout hearted and have great perseverance, she warns, and a glance at the work schedule for her Amber role gives ample justification for such a warning. "Forever Amber" will have its permiere at the Plaza tomorrow night.

Linda worked from 5:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. for 125 days with only one day off on the role of Amber. She collapsed twice under the strain, once with the flu and once from over-work. Her gowns—she wore 42, including three negligees and a wedding outfit—weighed an average of 35 pounds and one, which was heavily brocaded weighed 58 pounds. She had 23 different coiffures. One took four hours to do and the other had 300 curls. She spent hours in the studio's hairdressing salon every day before going on the set. Linda changed herself drastically for Amber. Her hair was dyed an ash "amber" blonde and keeping it the right shade for the entire production was another major task.

WHILE AMBER had some 20-odd sweethearts in Kathleen Winsor's book, Linda had only six in the film—Cornel Wilde, George Sanders, Richard Greene, Glenn Langan, Richard Haydn and John Russell—but her romance with them kept her plenty busy before the cameras. Her first kiss, with Wilde, was the most expensive scene in the production. It took three days to film at a cost of $100,000.

Her most thrilling scene came when she ran out of a burning building during the staging of the spectacular London Fire of 1666 and her most painful experience was the fight she had with Richard Haydn, who plays her husband, the Earl of Radclyffe. She was black and blue over her shoulders and arms, and on her cheek. Haydn thought he had injured her until she explained that she bruised at the slightest touch.

IN ADDITION to all the physical changes Miss Darnell effected for her role as Amber she spent three months in taking Ttxas out of her speech. She's a Dallas girl and her slight drawl would not have sounded just right in King Charles II's court in the Restoration period. In this connection an experiment, unusual in the movies, was attempted. Alan Napier was assigned the task of coaching the actors in "basic English" that would eliminate the English "accent" from the English players and Americanisms, such as the hard mid-westerner's from the Americans.

So, you want to be an actress? Well, take a tip from Linda Darnell and be prepared for an ordeal, physical and mental.

"Here's something queer," said the dentist, who had been drilling into a tooth. "You said this tooth had never been filled, but I find flakes of gold on the point of my drill."

"I knew it," moaned the patient. "You've struck my back collar button!"

Civic Club Meets In First Session To Discuss Plans

The Civic club met for its first meeting of the season at the town hall Thursday night. President Mack Moore gave a resume of the work done this summer and his proposals for the coming season. Because of the resignation of Vice President Dr. W. Consor, Andy Lester was appointed in his place and volunteers for the job of secretary were requested.

A report of the purchase of the new library with a complete financial statement was submitted to the club by Mrs. Marguerite Hillery, chairman of the board of trustees of the library. Mrs. Marie Ide reported on what has to be done in order to move into the new library and asked for a crew of workers.

MACK MOORE reported that the triangular park on the highway at Grove street and Allen avenue was in sad need of weeding and clean-up and suggested that several people do this before Prof. James Kyle returned. Kyle has been a faithful volunteer gardener for the last three years.

The Pioneer ball will be given in January at the DeLuxe Trailer Court Recreation Hall and ideas and volunteer workers will be welcome.

Lloyd Mason Smith will give lectures at the town hall on the third Thursday of each month. This is a contribution from the Desert Museum and the use of the hall will be paid for by the Civic club.

MAJOR EFFORT of the Civic club for this year will be the organizing and sponsoring of a handcraft center here under Lester who teaches ceramics and leathercraft work in the high school, said Moore.

The matter of road improvement and safety and parking, upon which the Civic club has done extensive spade work in the past, has now been turned over to the Chamber of Commerce for to the Chamber of Commerce for concerted organized action through the new supervisor, James Easley.

Library Will Be Clean Up Scene

Marie Ide and Marguerite Hillery announce that the new library building will open the first week in November but that first it must be cleaned and the books and shelves moved from the Town Hall.

Saturday, Nov. 1, at 1 p.m. all those who will help with the work, men and women, are asked to bring their carpenter tools, paint brushes, vacuums and cleaning rags to the library. A free supper will be served to the workers.

Science Church On Air Nov. 2

On Sunday morning, November 2, the Columbia Church of the Air will be broadcast under the auspices of the Christian Science Committee on Publication for Colorado.

The subject of the address will be "The Bible as a Comforting and Healing Agent". The program will be released over Station KNX at 7 a.m., Pacific time.

Leatherwork Classes Start Monday, Nov. 3

A free class in leatherwork will be given on Monday, night, Nov. 3, at 7 p.m. in the new Library building Andy Lester, director and teacher of the new project announced.

Those who are interested in taking up leather work to begin with followed by jewelry work and ceramics are invited to be present at the first class.

Scott's Hold Formal Opening of Gift Shop

Scott's House of Gifts formally opened its new wing Saturday and Sunday. Local girls, among them Alberta Martin, Sonia Blackburn and Audrey Benson, modeled the complete line of Western ranch wear throughout the two days.

Cathedralites congratulate each other on having such a beautiful addition to the town.

Christmas Fair Topic of Woman's Club Directorate

Board of Directors of the Woman's Club of Cathedral City was entertained at Desert Lodge by the vice-president, Mary Moore, and publicity chairman, Mary Wolseth, Monday night.

Eleven ladies were saddened to hear that the president, Mrs. Bessie Kelley has been ordered by her doctor to relinquish all club activities for the next few months. Mrs. Moore will serve in her place with Mrs. Edna Cobb as vice-president. It is hoped that Mrs. Kelley will be able to resume her office in the New Year. A discussion of preparations for the Christmas Fair was given by Betty Bleeker who is in charge of decorations and entertainment.

Ted Parkinson to Speak at Assembly On Monday Nov. 3

The National Assemblies of Los Angeles will bring one of their top-ranking attractions, Ted Parkinson, to Palm Springs high school on Monday, November 3, at 10:20 a.m.

Mr. Parkinson, a graduate of the University of Utah, spent three years in Uncle Sam's Army in Burma and India. While there, he studied the ways, manners and customs of the people of India, so he could lecture on his findings.

IMMEDIATELY upon his return, he began appearing before high schools, telling them about what he learned in India. His reputation soon spread from school to school, and soon he had more requests for appearances than he could fill. About that time, National Assemblies of Los Angeles heard of his great success, and contracted with him for a three-year tour of the high schools and colleges of the West.

Mr. Parkinson has a remarkable gift of presentation and is probably as well informed on his subject as any person in America. His program becomes, not just a lecture, but a travelog entertainment, for he brings scores of interesting things he collected in India, such items as Indian jewelry, brassware and articles of clothing.

HE WILL SHOW how Indian men wear their Dhoties, have several of the high school girls dress in beautiful Indian Saris, and will demonstrate how a meal is eaten in a Hindu home.

Mr. Parkinson is reported by National Assemblies, "to have received the highest rating made by all their entertainment attractions during the past two years."

It is generall agreed there must be greater democracy in decisions to strike.—Sen. Claude Pepper (D) of Florida.

Holiday Dates Outlined in Talk By Dr. Oertel

Announcement and an explanation concerning changes in the holiday schedule were given by Principal Dr. E. E. Oertel during a student body assembly last week. According to the federal law, the following historical dates, which were optional during the war years, must be observed Armistice Day, November 11, and Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays in February.

"It was the decision of the board of trustees that the only way possible to allow for these days and still have the required 170 days of the school year would be to have the regular school session on the Friday following Thanksgiving Day," Dr. Oertel stated.

"This will still cut down the term two days, from the planned 172 to the minimum," he continued. "It is the only time when a holiday could be eliminated. Otherwise the school year would have to be extended."

Concluding his talk, Principal Oertel warned the students of their responsibility to the school and the requirement of having school an extra day, after all, if the attendance Friday, November 28, was not above fifty.

Commercial Class Sitting Pretty on New, Softer Seats

MARY LOU NAVA

Since Wednesday it's been pretty soft for the commercial classes, with the new posture chairs and all. It's getting so you can't kill time getting out of your seat; you just push back and stand up. However, if you push too hard, you'll undoubtedly land on the floor.

Your elbows don't stick out very much, because you put your fingers on the home keys and slide back and forth, and they just seem to take care of themselves. As for the lower part of your spine, the back of the chair touches it, and you just can't slump down. The new chairs are so soft, so round, and fully packed, that you might forget you're sitting down. You can't cross your legs, as you would if you had intentions of going in there to be glamorous instead of working hard, because if you do, you might just slide back.

The chairs are of a brown color that seems to suggest work, so you see, our sense of color has helped to improve our work.

Expert Aid for Chia Promised By Publisher

George Wheeler, the publisher of The Villager, is to be the coordinator with the printers and the engravers for the new and better "Chia" (the yearbook). This means that Mr. Wheeler will be responsible for checking the quality of work of the engravers and printers. The Villager will testify as to Mr. Wheeler's years of experience.

Lolo Vallier is in charge of correcting and writing the Chia copy this year. The theme is a deep dark secret. "It will be as personal as your own diary," said Lolo.

The Chia is to have extra special padded covers this year. Mr. Biwerse will be in charge of photography. The yearbook staff is going to allow students to pay two dollars as a deposit and the remainder when the book is delivered. The total price is $3.75 with a student body card, $4.25 without. Place your order now with Joanne Wilkes, sales manager.

Scholarships to be Awarded in Navy Tests at P.S.H.S.

A four-year scholarship at any college in the country is to be given away by the office of Naval Officer Procurement, in a competitive examination to be held December 13.

The successful candidates will receive four years of college at the navy's expense and also a retainer at the rate of $50.00 per month or $600 per year. After graduation they may be commissioned as ensigns in the regular Navy or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps, and will be required to serve in active duty for at least two years. This will be open to all seniors or post graduates between 17 and 21 years of age.

The applications must be sent to the College Entrance Board, Princeton, New Jersey, by November 10, of this year.

252 Student Body Cards Go To Eager Buyers

Palm Springs high school student body card sales came to an end Friday. They were sold at $1.50 each. The total cards sold were 252 and the money raised was $378.00.

The students who did not buy a card are now out of luck. With these cards, students can go to the games free of charge, also go in the theater at a reduced rate. If you have a card you pay your way as a student.

The length of time for selling the cards was extended a month, and they were sold every day at noon time by Hazel Veith and Nona Lake.

A Fat Merit to—

Lolo Vallier for her gentle but acute observation of people, feelings, and places.

Jim Wills for being smart and also keeping his mouth nicely closed.

Willie Vajsabel for growing so fast.

Sandra Veano for writing prose that can keep a class perfectly silent for at least two beautiful minutes.

Nancy Nye for growing so sensible.

Mort Gilbert for getting things done, but fast.

K. K. for proving that he is efficient, too.

Mr. Summers for telling the team their faults and virtues, and it was fun.

Joey Flavin for waiting on the team for years on end (no glory).

Shirley Miszyak for twirling that baton like a professional.

Ed Wiess for playing football and keeping his disposition.

Delany Jury Trial Reset for October 31

Jury trial of William Delany, charged with assault and battery by Beryle Miner, was postponed Friday morning until October 31.

Delany, who was the manager of a stable owned by the plaintiff, is asserted to have injured his employer.

Fads and Fancies

"Western Week" has come and gone, four memorable days in which every conceivable type of western outfit was displayed, some rugged, some smooth, some daring and some not even worth mentioning.

The rugged type of outfits were worn by the old time, gun-totin' hombres of our pleasant town. These usually consisted of Levis, stiff socks, boots, battered shirts and an old ten gallon hat. These outfits were the most popular during Western Week since they were so typically western.

NEXT ON OUR LIST are the classy outfits. These were made up of carefully pressed western pants, shirts and a perfect, hand-blocked hat. Usually a pair of fancy boots were thrown in and a beautifully printed cravat (tie to you). Upon asking an old "desert rat" his opinion of these "soap opera dubs," his nonchalant reply was "Hummp!" The typical example of one of these outfits was the terrific red number Mabel Potter was seen in.

THEN COMES the daring costume. This consisted of the two-piece, pulse-beating number worn by the female tourists. A fine example of this style was the cute little outfit worn by "Miss Twenty-Nine Palms." Remember?

Last on the list of western styles was the not-worth-mentioning style. Since it isn't worth mentioning, I won't.

After viewing all the western frenzy, I do strictly believe that clothes are here to stay. Don't you agree?

Woman's Club Season Opens Monday Night

Richard Atkinson, noted lecturer and author, an authority on national and international affairs, will speak on "Our Democracy at Work" at the initial meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's Club next Monday evening.

The meeting will be held at the clubhouse, 314 South Cahuilla road starting at 8 p.m.

Husbands of members of the club are invited to be guests at this first meeting of the season. Others, desiring to hear Mr. Atkinson, are also invited. A small fee of $1.20 per person to help defray expenses is charged non-members. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

OPENS SEASON—Richard Atkinson, noted lecturer, who will address Woman's Club members and guests at the initial meeting of the season next Monday evening.

Large Throng Plans to Attend Dinner Dance

From the growing list of reservations coming in for the Palm Springs Woman's Club dinner dance a capacity crowd will be on hand for the event at the Tennis Club on November 6.

For the benefit of those who have not made their reservations and desire to do so Mrs. Harold Murphy, president, announced that by telephoning Mrs. Fay Brainard at 8721 or the Tennis Club, arrangements will be made for either individual or large tables, at $7.50 per person.

Altar Society Host at First of Bridge Parties

First of a series of desert-bridge parties hosted by members of the Altar Society of the Catholic church, was held last Tuesday, October 21, at the home of Mrs. Tom Holland.

Mrs. John McCoy won first prize and Mrs. Catherine Gentry the second door prize.

The next desert-bridge party will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank A. Purcell November 18 and will be a topic of discussion at the next regular meeting of the Altar Society November 4 in the Rectory of the Lady of Solitude.

One of the major problems now is the veteran who has had no work experience.—B. C. Seiple, manager Ohio State Employment Office, Cleveland.

Social Notes

A LARGE PARTY of Palm Springs week-end guests, together with their hosts were invited for cocktails on Saturday evening to the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Costello. The guests were Phillip Davies, Roy Hemphill and his daughter, Lenore, with the Frank Davies; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brinkman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnstone with their hosts for the week-end Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf; Mrs. Lela Rogers, and her houseguests, Mrs. Howard Edgar and Mrs. William Edgar, whose husbands were away helping to open the duck season; and the Costello's own guests, Dr. and Mrs. Wilmot Robinson.

THE DELICIOUS AROMA of steaming hors d'houevres of all kinds greeted the delighted guests of the Tom Lyon at a cocktail party Saturday night. The party was given in honor of their attractive cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Sheller of Los Angeles, who visited the Lyons for the week-end.

There to welcome the Shellers to the Village were the Harry Reids, the Robert Becks, the Russell Wades, John Seamens, Howard Whitlock, Wayland Leanard, and several others. Mrs. Lyon's mother and father, the Lee Berings, dropped in also before the group all adjourned to the Tennis Club for dinner and an evening of dancing.

DANCING to the strains of the high school orchestra sixty young students enjoyed the celebration of Barbara Jones' birthday. Barbara, who was sixteen last Tuesday, entertained her friends at a dance held at the Woman's clubhouse.

Her guests, dressed formally for the occasion, enjoyed sharing Barbara's birthday with her. She is a popular member of Palm Springs high school and holds the office of junior class president.

Norma Mabry, Maurice Smith Plight Troth

All the loud honking of horns through the center of town Saturday afternoon was in celebration of the marriage of Norma Jean Mabry to Maurice Smith. The ceremony took place at Our Lady of Solitude Catholic church with Father Michael O'Conner officiating.

The bride, who looked lovely in a traditional white taffeta gown and illusion veil, was given in marriage by her father, Dick Mabry. Attending Norma were her cousin, Lynn Carter as maid of honor and Babs Neel and Sue Sutherland as bridesmaids. Also in the wedding party were Norma's nephew as ringbearer and her niece and Smitthy's younger sister as flower girls.

Bob Lienieu served as best man and Wendell Delano and John Outcault as ushers. Babs and Wendell both got some practice in marching down the aisle for that trip to the altar they will make on the ninth of November.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Mabry's attractive new home in Rancho Royale after which the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip up the coast to San Francisco. Here from Seattle for the wedding were Smitty's mother and father and three sisters. In spite of a busy week preparing for her own marriage, Norma found time on Monday evening to give a miscellaneous shower for Babs Neel.

Annual Plaza Get-Together Party Enjoyed

Major and Mrs. Robert Ransom, representing Mrs. Howard Davidson and Jefferson Patterson, owners of the Palm Springs Plaza and the Carnell building, were hosts at the Twelfth Annual Get-Together party Wednesday evening on the Plaza rooftop overlooking the beautiful and atmospheric surroundings of the Plaza grounds, for residents and store tenants. Colored lights rendered a festive air and Johnny Boyle strolled among the guests playing his guitar and singing typically western songs, while a lovely buffet supper was being served.

These get-together parties were originated several years ago by Mr. Ransom to provide an opportunity for the shop keepers, their employees and the occupants of the bungalows and lodges to become acquainted. The first few gathering were so successful that they have become one of the traditions of the Plaza.

Two Conventions Plan to Return to Village Next Fall

Two organizations have already signified intentions of returning to Palm Springs for meetings, according to Earl Coffman, co-owner of the Desert Inn.

The first one will take place from October 10 to 15, 1948, when dentists in Southern California convene during their annual seminar at the Desert Inn. This year the meeting was held in Yosemite.

The second convention will take place from October 17 to October 22 inclusive and will be that of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association. A four-day meet of members of this organization was just completed here on Thursday.

JOYA and JAYNO Tell All

WHAT THE WELL-DRESSED MAN WILL WEAR . . . was previewed Saturday night out in Section 10. .. . Can you picture Lee Bering greeting his guests in a smart hand-tailored leopard cloth shirt? . . . or Fred Renker and Rex Colbert in maroon suede trousers with hat and shoes to match? . . . or Charlie Farrell in a pink and purple slack suit? . . . or Cliff Henderson in a squirrel-trimmed outfts? . . . We can't but they showed these selections in the fashion show of menswear. . . . Also read an article the other day stating that men in the future will carry handbags. We think that something in powder blue would be very chic for practical desert wear. . . . On a more serious note, the show was a great success. Many outstanding clothes were shown and all attending enjoyed it tremendously. . . .

SAILING, SAILING . . . has been innovated as new sport in this area out at Palm Desert. Long, lanky Frank Shields and petite Sally Lasley made quite a picture drifting about in a miniature sailboat while Fred Renker, Shadow Mountain's manager and sailing instructor screamed directions from the shore. You did a grand job, Fred! . . . The Leonard Firestones were also out there this week-end staking out their new home. They certainly did get around; we saw them also at the Racquet Club playing tennis. . . . Also saw Bill Hollingsworth, Dick Hubert, who is staying at Thunderbird, Jane Stanton Gallagher, (playing her usual fine game of tennis), W. L. Wasserman, the president of M.C.A., and Alex Gottlieb, Warner Bros. producer . . . on the way home saw Gus Kettermann—Slowed down.

DOIN' THE DUNES . . . this week-end were Ben Meyer, president of the Union Bank and Trust in Los Angeles, and Ethelle Townsend . . . Janis Cawthorn of San Francisco with Maurie Willows, and his sister, Betty . . . the studio artist Sol Fielding with his wife . . . Harry Joe Brown, the producer and director, and Leo Field, the Los Angeles judge. . . . Over at Mr. Dee's were the Mickey Rooneys, and songwriter McNamara listening to the "sophisticated singer of songs" Julie Mitchum. . . . Across the street at Pago-Pago the Bill Talbots, the Daryll Zanucks, and the Henry Clocks of Long Beach. . . . Up the street at the Doll House were the Bruce Odlums, Claudette Colbert, and Leon Gordon. . . . Also Ollie Hammond, the Fred Fultons, the Van Johnsons, the Edgar Bergens, and Michael Leisen. . . .

ALL DRESSED UP ON SATURDAY NIGHT . . . Muriel Bering and Lora Lee Lyon receiving compliments on Lora's seven-month-old child, Amanda, better known to close acquaintances as Dandy Lyon. Paying compliments were Russell and Janie Wade, Nick and Marry Carter, and John Seamans.

ON FRIDAY NIGHT at the Tennis Club, saw the Bob Hopes and party dining, Bob left the table to put on a clever floor show for the visiting clothing men, who were dancing on the tennis courts and we might add was royally applauded. . . . Ran into the Jack Gorhams of Estrella Villa in the bar. . . . Met Adelaide Dunlevey, who was kept busy talking to all her friends. . . . Also met Jerry Jontry, Esquire's West Coast advertising manager . . . and Oscar Sheffler, Esquire's fashion editor, who are house guests of the Nick Carters. . . . Think of the houseguests the Carters will have when they move into their own new home. . . .

AND ON THE SABBATH . . . Mrs. H. Bedford Jones of Los Angeles enjoying buffet luncheon at the Tennis Club with a group of friends. . . . Seated near by with her houseguests . . . The Paul Helms . . . the E. H. Maggard. .. .

AT DINNER was Cecil Barbee, the largest stockholder in the Coca-Cola company . . . Diana Lynn and Bob Neal looking cozy in a corner . . . Charley Morrison, who is looking forward to the opening of his Stables next Friday, which is certain to be a great success . . . Lina Romay in a fascinating dress with a sequin hood . . . the Harold Murphys and guests. . . .

ALSO IN TOWN . . . W. Lippett, theater magnate, the McNab twins . . . ALSO Howard Hughes, do you suppose that was Howard that dipped his plane so low over the Racquet Club on his way out of town Sunday?

IN CLOSING. . . . Raced down to Chi Chi to catch the late Sunday night crowd before closing time, didn't make it, saw Gus Kettmann. Slowed down! . . .

Doing the Village

with Moya Henderson

Mrs. Levering Moore was feted at a farewell tea in her honor on Tuesday by the Episcopal Ladies Guild. The Gordon Nicholsons recently purchased the Moore home and will reside in it this season. . . . The tea brought Mrs. William Lippman out of hiding from her hilltop in Fern Valley.

The Los Compadres held their initial moonlight ride of the season Sunday evening with the Experimental Station as their destination. Members of the club enjoyed an elk dinner supplied by that master huntsman Bill Rogers, part of his catch from a recent hunting trip to Montana.

LITTLE FLEUR KETTMAN celebrated her seventh birthday with her friends at her home on Wednesday afternoon. There to help Lib keep the small fry entertained were Peg Rashall and Billie Moseley.

Those notices sent home by the schools concerning the Clean-Up drive have certainly been effective, at least one five-year-old kept this family bustling so his form could go back to school completely checked. Now that we're getting the Village all spic and span how about some picnic tables somewhere about so that it will stay that way when we have an influx of week-end picnicers. Seems to me it would make visitors feel a little more welcome when they drop in to visit this resort.

Four Masses Sundays At Catholic Church

The Rev. Michael O'Conner, pastor of Our Lady of Solitude, Catholic church, last Sunday added another Mass to the Sunday services, at 11:30 a.m.

There are now four Masses each Sunday, at 6:30, 8:30, 10 and 11:30 a.m.

Call Off Hunt

Boy Turns Up After Alarm Is Sounded

Red-headed Terry Briody, 10, gave his parents a bad three hours Sunday afternoon when he disappeared from his home at the Veteran's Housing project.

The father asked the assistance of police in searching for the boy. Fifteen minutes later, the boy walked into the house and the embarrassed parents called the police hunt off.

Village Bs Sting Banning

Safety and T. D. Give Palm Springs High Jayvee 9-0 Win on Losers' Field

Palm Springs high school B team went to Banning last week and came back down the hill with a 9 to 0 victory over the Banning B's to their credit.

A safety in the first period and a long touchdown ramble in the third accounted for the Village B scores.

Midway in the opening period, Palm Springs launched a sustained drive which bogged down on the Banning 5-yard marker.

ON THE FIRST PLAY after Banning took over, they essayed to run the ball out. Black broke through and tackled the ballpacker in the end zone, giving the Villager two points.

In the remainder of the period and in the second quarter the local gridders pushed Banning around but were unable to open the door to pay dirt.

THE SECOND SCORE came quick and fast in the third quarter. On the opening play, Quarterback Roland French called Fullback Hale's number and the latter knifed through and rambled 55 yards for the t.d. Mendoza added the extra point by going through on the hoof.

In the last period both teams huffed and puffed but didn't produce anything for the score board. The Palm Springs bench was emptied in the forth quarter as everyone saw action.

THE STARTING LINE-UP for the Palm Springs Bs: Black, re; Krings, rt; Craft, rg; Tuttle, c; Vajsabel, lg; Fogle, lt; Davis, le; Mendoza, qb; Nelson, rh; Granger, lh; Hale, fb.

Subs that saw most action were Sandeffer, Hensen, Wilcox and French. All of the other members of the squad also saw some action.

Lady Luck

She's Passenger In Villager's Car

Losing control of his automobile on a curve south of Palm Springs Satuday night, Harry A. Birk, employed by the Southern California Gas company, felt his car leave the road, do a complete roll to land on its wheels again in an upright position.

Police reported that the driver was uninjured and drove away.

Clean It Up!

HAROLD HICKS,
GENERAL CHAIRMAN

Information Telephone—2233.

Burning allowed with permit from Fire Department and at hours fixed on permit. These are easily obtained and home owners are urged to burn as much rubbish as possible to lighten loads.

Districts remaining to be canvassed this week: Council Dist. No. 4, Robert Hargis, chairman, Oct. 27; Council Dist. No. 5, Florian Boyd, chairman, Oct. 28; Council Dists. No. 6 and 7, Lee Bering, chairman, Oct. 29; Council Dist. No. 1, Bill Leonesio, Oct. 30 and 31.

Trucks and volunteer helpers will pick up rubbish placed at property line. Residents are urged to clear the vacant lots next to their properties and place rubbish at street.

Rubbish that has been missed—Residents should telephone information phone, No, 2233, and report location so auxiliary trucks can make later pickup.

Loads of debris removed to date—80.

Los Compadres to Have Clubhouse of Their Own Soon

Members of the Palm Springs Planning Commission in meeting last week approved the application of the Los Compadres for a site on which to place their clubhouse in Araby.

The clubhouse is the former guardhouse used at Torney General hospital during World War II. The first meeting of the membership is expected to take place in the building in about 60 days, it was announced.

Election of new officers of the Los Compadres will take place the first Thursday in November.

Soroptimist Club Program in Honor Of Founder's Day

Founder's Day was the key-note of the weekly Soroptimist club meeting at the Doll House Thursday. Muriel Fulton was in charge of the program and conducted a miniature "broadcast," interviewing President Katherine Finchy on various phases of Soroptimism. This was a repeat performance for President Finchy, who gave the program over KMCJ last Monday evening.

Mrs. Louise McCarn, city clerk, was the luncheon guest of Rhodah Garner. This was the last weekly meeting at the Doll House as beginning Nov. 4 and every Tuesday thereafter, luncheon meetings will be held at the Desert Inn. The regular business meeting will be held Thursday at 7:30, at Frances Stevens school.

Friday afternoon, President Finchy, Senior Delegate Gladys Capper and Junior Delegate Edna Brott left Palm Springs to attend the Southwestern Regional Fall conference at Hotel del Coronado. About 500 Soroptimist are expected to attend the three-day session.

Local Girl Scouts Celebrating 35th Anniversary Week

Palm Springs Girl Scouts this week were celebrating the 35th anniversary of Girl Scouting in this country.

An exhibit of handiwork and other crafts made under the guidance of Grace Morrison went on display in one of Bullock's windows yesterday.

In addition a booth managed by Girl Scouts selling Scout calendars was opened in front of the Bullock's and one in front of the Bank of America.

MONEY DERIVED from the sale of these calendars, according to Mrs. Erna Poliak, president of the Palm Springs Girl Scout council, will go toward the purchase of recordings to be used in the Girl Scout House.

At the same time Mrs. Poliak announced that the number of Girl Scouts in this area has reached 200, comprising 12 troops with a new one even now in the process of organization. There are also three mounted troops.

NATIONAL CONVENTION of Girl Scouts will take place in Long Beach November 4 to November 7. Voting delegate to the convention will be Mrs. Poliak with Mrs. Hutch Moseley as alternate.

Others who plan to attend from this area are Mrs. Katherine Khury and Mrs. Verle Phillips of Cathedral City.

Ramon Bus Service on Shaky Basis

Only 20 Passengers So Far Avail Selves Of Rides Into Town

Bus service out East Ramon road is figuratively gasping for breath.

In more than a week of the new service for which more than 75 families signed petitions praying for the service, only 20 persons have used the ten-cent ride into town, according to Mrs. Polly Isenagle, Palm Springs manager of Tanner's Auto Livery.

NOT DESPAIRING however at the lack of patronage, Mrs. Isenagle Sunday had installed bus stop signs along Ramon road in hope that they would increase the number of riders for the new service.

"Mr. Tanner is desirous of giving the new service a fair trial," said Mrs. Isenagle.

THE NEW ROUTE of the citizen's bus line which reaches out to the Sunny Dunes tract, three miles from the heart of Palm Springs, was placed in operation at the cost of several trips along the old established route on South Palm Canyon drive.

The bus schedule out East Ramon is as follows:

Leave Desert Inn	Leave Sunny Dunes Tract
9:30 A.M.	9:30 A.M.
11:15 A.M.	11:30 A.M.
1:15 P.M.	1:30 P.M.
3:15 P.M.	3:30 P.M.

Charge Betting

Suspect Faces Bookie Case Preliminary

Harold Jessie, 44, bootblack, was free under $2,000 bail pending preliminary hearing before Judge Eugene E. Theireau next Friday on a charge of bookmaking.

Jessie was arrested on a complaint signed by Chief of Police August Kettmann yesterday morning and lodged in the city jail for allegedly taking bets on horse racing.

NAVY DAY SPEAKER—Capt. T. W. Rimer, USN, who will speak here tomorrow before Rotarians and Thursday before Lions, on Navy Day which was observed nationally yesterday.

Service Clubs to Hear Talk on Navy By Captain Rimer

Capt. Theodore W. Rimer, USN, district ordnance officer for the 11th naval district, will address Village Rotarians tomorrow and Lions Club members Thursday on the United States Navy as part of the local observance of Navy Day which was celebrated yesterday throughout the nation.

Capt. Rimer was a graduate of the Annapolis class of 1926 and saw duty with the Atlantic, Pacific and Asiatic fleets on all classes of warships before World War II.

He saw much action during the war in the Pacific area on the U.S.S. New York, at an amphibious base and later as commander of a mortar flotilla. He has been awarded many medals and ribbons for heroic action.

Both clubs will meet at the Desert Inn, Rotarians on Wednesday and Lions on Thursday.

company, Desert Construction company and Hollingsworth-McCann, paint contractors. All this week contractors of the community will contribute their trucks for special hauling, supplementing the rented and city trucks being used on the project.

MEANWHILE, many organizations and schools were busy doing their bit in the big sweep. On Saturday the Girl Scouts and Brownies of Palm Springs, in charge of Erna Poliak, took as their special project the cleaning of Sunrise way and the area along McCallum way leading into the airport. The Boys Club members then picked up trash collected by the girls. Praise was voiced by Mrs. Poliak for the assistance of Mrs. Watkins.

In the front lines of the campaign also were the elementary schools of Palm Springs. From Miss Katherine Finchy it was learned that school children are entering the work whole-heartedly through the check-up form by which they are reporting the progress of the cleanup campaigns at home. Prizes will be awarded to the individuals and to the rooms for the best results. Oral reports are given by the children in their classrooms daily, the teachers playing a vital role in the project by encouraging the children to follow through on the home checkups. Bulletins were sent home by the schools through the help of the students.

THANKS TO THE HELP of several civic-minded members of the Palm Springs Women's Club, the north gateway to Palm Springs shines in brilliant style. Armed with an assortment of tools, the volunteers, including Mrs. Harold Murphy, the president, Mrs. Henry S. Reid, Mrs. Carl Lykken, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. James Geggie and Mrs. Fern Jones, removed every semblance of trash from the city's portal planting. Many boxes of trash were collected and turned over to the city trucks for the trip to the city dump. And after the trucks had hauled the rubbish, the club women even made the spot sparkle with a good sweeping!

Through the help of Atty. Hilton McCabe as coordinator for the trucks to be furnished for the campaign, several contractors have offered trucks for various periods in the districts this week.

Persons having any questions concerning the cleanup campaign were today urged by General Chairman Harold Hicks to call telephone 2233 which is the general information center. It is being manned by members of the Jewish Women's Club of Palm Springs throughout this week.

Mrs. Coffman . . .

the picnic grounds announced that he has practically completed the program.

"Old pioneers of the town," said Lykken, "have gone back into 'memory-files' for anecdotes of early days in Palm Springs and especially those involving Mrs. Coffman.

THE CHAMBER of Commerce committee headed by Mrs. Melba Bennett was scheduled to meet this morning in the Chamber of Commerce offices to discuss final plans for the picnic.

In addition to Mrs. Bennett, the committee is composed of the following Villagers: Mrs. Lilie Goff, Mrs. Henrietta Parker, Mrs. Charles Mathews, Raymond Cree, Carl Lykken, Harold Hicks and Harry Harper of the Chamber of Commerce. Names of others to serve on the committee were agreed upon as follows: Harriet Cody, Zaddie Bunker, Mrs. Pearl McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Willard, Milton Hicks, Mrs. Steven Vidosics, Mrs. O. S. McKinney, Mrs. H. L. Hansen, Cordelia White, Mrs. Culver Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Boyd, and Charles Spaletti.

THE STARTING GUN in the celebration will start when Milton Hicks calls for Mrs. Coffman in an old surrey and drives the ancient vehicle down Palm Canyon drive preceded by a horseman ringing a bell and another "shooting the town up." Others who can dust off old horse drawn wagons or buggies are asked to join in the parade.

The picnic grounds will be set with tables for those who have brought their lunch baskets. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished free of charge.

The committee is also asking those Villagers who have them, to come attired in clothes fashionable during the 1910 era. Those not having old-time garb will be encouraged to wear western gear.

Protest Against Liquor Fee "Cut"

Palm Springs, like other cities in the county and state, plans to protest when it receives its next payment from the state controllers' office remitting half of the liquor license fees collected here from January 1 to July 1.

According to City Manager William Alworth, this action will be taken on the advice of Attorney Richard Carpenter of the League of California Cities.

Difference in the amount due is the result of opposite views in interpreting legislation passed in this year's session with Attorney General Fred Howser claiming that payment of the money in full will fall due with collections of September 1 and later.

The attorney for the League of California Cities feels that the 100 per cent remissions to cities should commence with the collection of fees as of January 1.

Payment of the January to July collections is expected here this month. Palm Springs will accept this payment but will lodge a protest for the balance.

NOW IT'S RIGHT—When six and a half year old Polly Self picked up the Desert Sun Friday and saw her picture in the paper, she jumped with childish glee but when she laboriously decifered the name below the picture it was quite another story story.

The caption below the picture (reprinted above) read: "Doletta and Polly Routt sang their way out of trouble in Kangaroo court." It should have read, "Doletta Routt and Polly Self did the singing." The two children are not related.

Polly, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Self, have lived in Palm Springs for 10 years, is a talented child. As a pupil of Roy Randolph, dance master, she has learned to sing and dance pleasingly.

An outstanding desert home on a beautiful lot, 120' x 106', well located and surrounded by fine houses, 5 bedrooms and a den, furnished, fireplace, beautifully landscaped.

Dope Suspect Describes Devious Methods Used to Acquire Drug in Reported Confession to Local Police

The half dream-world of a drug user's existence, was revealed in the plea of a defendant who stood before Judge Eugene E. Therieau Friday morning.

Carl D. Harris pleaded guilty to the charge of possessing 35 "sticks" of marihuana and was bound over to the superior court at Riverside under bail of $2,500 for sentence and disposition.

But the asserted confession, Harris, 25, made to police following his arrest is pictured the rendezvous he had with the dope seller, the language that transpired between them, and the slinking figures that inhabit the dope-world.

THE CONFESSIONS, said by police to have been signed by Harris following his arrest by Police Office Jim Maynard, read like a page from fiction.

Into sharp focus was first the rendezvous where the buyer waited and hoped that the seller would appear. It was a dimly lit cafe on a Los Angeles street devoid of lamps, with filthy alleys disappearing into mysterious darkness.

Pictured, the cafe may have presented this appearance. Inside sat two patrons hunched over their bowls of chili at one end of the dark, paint-faded counter.

THE COFFEE CAKES and the two bedraggled pieces of pie displayed on the back counter, were the objectives of two giant cockroaches as they tried to scale the heights.

Indifferent to the needs of his patrons, the waiter attired in filthy, gravy-stained apron, sat under a light studying the last racing form.

Into this scene strolled Harris, according to his alleged confession.

THE WAITER looked up at the newcomer with indifference and then for a full minute or two returned his gaze to the reading matter before him. Finally he arose, displaying the gravy stained apron, clinging stiffly to his body and showing the "battle" marks of a thousand meals. En route to the place where his new customer sat he picked up a

IS MEDICINE DESTROYING ITSELF?

★ Things dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfa drugs and penicillin are examples.

Less dramatic, but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal; swamp clearance; water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these triumphs.

The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Brice to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labors incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence."

The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician. The accurate filling of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

a business clinic held on the grounds of the Desert Inn where retailing problems, market conditions and the supply of materials was discussed.

With only one hour to spare, the conventioneers hurried to the golfing grounds where a giant barbecue was held and steaks for two thousand people was served.

By the time the last person was served a rush to hotel rooms took place in preparation for the style show scheduled to take place at 8 p.m.

LARGE AMOUNTS of props were used in setting the giant stage. Completed it looked exactly like the front of a large department store with display windows.

As each manufacturers' turn came up for the display of his creations, curtains in front of these false windows rolled back to display live models attired in various types of sports and resort wear.

Colors of men's clothing ranged from pink, lavender, red and other colors to the fanciest of shirts and ties.

ON ALL SIDES could be heard amazement at the magnificence and daring of the show and creations.

Bert Bacharaea, fashion editor of Pic magazine, who flew to Palm Springs from New York City to "cover" the convention, declared it was the most amazing show he had ever witnessed and that nothing in the East has ever come within a mile of its equal.

Burning Ambition

Clean-Up Week Keeps Firemen Busy Putting Out Rubbish Fires Which Get Out of Control

Ever since the campaign started to clean up the Village it has literally become "a burning ambition" on the part of some civic minded citizens.

Such was the opinion of Fire Chief Leonesio who reported that his department has answered 17 calls to extinguish brush fires started by well meaning citizens with a burning desire to do their part in cleaning up their empty lots of debris, weeds and trash.

Latest to be added to the fire alarms were two brush fires which occurred since Saturday. The trash pile on the property of Gerald Thomason went out of control, necessitating a "run" by the fire department.

The next one happened at 1386 San Jacinto and Monday morning employes near The Stables lost control of a fire which resulted in the fire equipment being rushed to that area.

heavy mug and filled it with the muddy liquid.

Harris picked up the cup, sipped, but his attention returned again and again to the door and the darkened exterior of the street as if he expected someone to enter momentarily.

FINALLY the door did open. Harris' description of the newcomer read like this:

"His name was Joe," the arrested man said. "He was approximately 25 years old, wore either suntans or pancho style clothes, about five foot-six inches tall and medium build, with dark wavy hair."

Then the asserted confession continued narrating the conversation that occurred between the two:

"He comes up to the counter where I am sitting and takes the stool near me. He sat there for a little while and then asked me 'what's doing,' which in slang words means: 'do I want anything'."

"AFTER SITTING for a little while, Joe orders a drink and then he turned to me and we start talking. During our conversation I use the word whole or half, which means I want a whole or half can of the marihuana.

"There is also another way of doing it," continued the statement signed by Harris.

"After he sits there for a while I'm slow in continuing the conversation, Joe asked me if I have any money. I either tell him that I have seven cents, ten cents or fifteen cents. This indicates in dollars how much I want."

AT THIS POINT, Harris points out that the bargaining for the "stuff" begins.

"As an example," continued Harris, "I tell him that I have seven cents and ask him if that is enough. He always refuses and laughs it off, stating "I'll see you later," which means that he understands that I want $7 worth.

"Shortly after this conversation he leaves and is gone for about 15 minutes to a half an hour. When he returns our conversation begins again which indicates that the "stuff" is in the usual hiding place behind a tree down the street. Soon as I am sure I slip him the money. We talk a little while longer, then I leave."

HARRIS DESCRIBED the darkened street to the police, the location of the tree and how he picked up the narcotic and the next day proceeded to Palm Springs to visit a friend.

While in a cafe here in town Jim Maynard spotted him, questioned the man and took him into custody. At the police station the marihuana was found on his person. Friday Harris was turned over to the state narcotic officers and transferred to the Riverside county jail.

Contractors Organize

R. H. Grant President of Incorporation Formed to Protect Builders of Homes Here

R. H. Grant was elected president of the Contractor's Association of Palm Springs at the first official meeting of that newly-organized group following its incorporation on September 2.

The association was authorized by the secretary of state as a California corporation to become the official organization representing all of the contractors of the Village.

OTHER OFFICERS elected at the first official meeting were H. H. Foster, first vice-president; K. E. Dreisbach, second vice-president; David E. Bond, secretary and treasurer.

Fred Hathaway, L. E. McLaughlin, Andre Nisson and Perry Sanders were named to the board of directors. H. H. Foster is chairman of the membership committee and Dick Mabrey and Oscar Mandinach are members of his committee.

APPOINTED to a committee to draw up by-laws are L. E. McLaughlin, chairman; John Barone, Oscar Coulombe, Fred Hathaway, Andre Nisson, Perry Sanders, Henry Simsarian, G. R. Westcott and R. H. Grant, the latter ex-officio member.

In a statement issued at the initial meeting, it was pointed out that the association was formed to protect the best interests and to see that quality construction is all of the crafts in the industry is given clients of the members.

THE AIMS of the association, the official statement set forth, are to protect those persons who have work done in this area against unlicensed contractors and fly-by-nights "who have been prone to cheat persons building without advising them that the operators were not authorized to do the work."

"It is also the aim of the association to see that all construction follows rigid city and state ordinances regarding building, and to cooperate with the city building department and other official organizations to the betterment of all structures and other work performed by its members in Palm Springs." The statement continued. "The association will also cooperate with other civic bodies in the procurement of benefits for the city and the development of the town generally.

"THE CONTRACTORS association of Palm Springs embodies all crafts engaged in the erection of structures, roads, etc., and in addition to general builders it includes the following crafts: Plumbers, electricians, roofers, sheet metal workers, concrete and masonry, glass and glazing, insulation, lathing and plastering, painting, tile work, floor work, etc.

"Any persons building in this area will be assured that any member of this association will give them the best procurable in labor and material, at fair prices, and in accordance with all regulations."

Trailer Fire Leaves Ten Destitute Here

Fire which totally destroyed a cabanna and trailer Saturday afternoon on the reservation at an estimated loss of $3,000 left six adults and four children desperately seeking shelter over the weekend.

The property was owned by Lester Hurst, employed by the California Electric company. He told firemen who answered the alarm at 3 p.m. that he carried no insurance on the cabanna or the trailer.

The fire-swept premises was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Lester, Keith Parrish and his wife and a couple named Cramer. Four children also lived there.

No Can Do

Man Faces Judge For Illegal Dumping

Ike Waterhouse, Negro, learned yesterday that the city ordinance prohibiting the dumping of trash just any old place, has teeth in it.

Said to have been caught "red-handed" dumping a truck load of debris and trash near the old Rodeo grounds, by Police Officers "Buz" Ordway and Dale Thompson, Waterhouse is scheduled to face Judge Eugene E. Therieau this morning charged with illegally dumping trash other than at the official city dump.

Teen Agers to Party Saturday At Youth Center

The Youth Center will be the scene of a gay Hallowe'en party to be held Saturday night to which all Village teen-agers are invited, according to Mrs. Caroline Hicks, chairman in charge of the center.

The party will get under way at 8 p.m. and will continue to midnight. Although plans are not as yet completed those attending are asked to come in costume if possible.

Six-Block Art Exhibit

Desert Painters To Display Wares in Show Windows During National Art Week

Jean Coutts, chairman for the desert area for observance of National Art Week, Nov. 1 to 7, today reported Village merchants in full co-operation with her plan for an art exhibit stretching five or six blocks along Palm Canyon drive.

All artists in the desert area which includes Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City and points as far east as Thermal have been asked to submit their works in this exhibit.

AS THERE is no art gallery in the Village at present where the prints can be hung, local merchants, hotels and restaurants have agreed to devote space in their windows to the exhibit.

Desmonds, for instance, has offered a full window. Other stores have offered generous space. Chairman Coutts says the spirit of co-operation found so far has been gratifying.

The chairman asked that all artists who wished to show their paintings locally during the week submit two entries to her at her home, 257 South Patencio road, before Oct. 31. The name of the artist, the name of the painting and where it was created should accompany the works.

WITH EACH PAINTING will be a placard from the California Art association announcing the week as National Art Week.

Local artists have invited art critics Arthur Millier of the Los Angeles Times and Kay English of the Los Angeles Examiner to review the local exhibit.

"This is a chance for desert artists to display their work before desert residents. Many artists here have displayed at big art shows but are unknown here," said Miss Coutts. "On the other hand, it offers an opportunity for local artists who are unable to show in the big exhibits, to display their work and thus gain recognition."

AMONG DESERT ARTISTS who have already signified their intention of entering exhibits are John Hilton of Thermal, Agnes Pelton of Cathedral City, Cabot Yerxa and Fritzoff Pierson of Desert Hot Springs. Gordon Coutts will be represented in the exhibit as will his daughter, Miss Jean Coutts.
